

Time	Code	Title	Description	Grade	KM	Cost
Monday, 23 October 2023
9:00-10:00	2323b	(2323b) Festival Opening Welcome/Whakatau	The Waiheke Walking Trust invite our local community and visitors to join us and members of Ngāti Pāoa, Local Board and Festival representatives to celebrate the beginning of the Waiheke Walking Festival 2023. The whakatau is open to everyone to attend and does not count toward your total of walk spots. This event will precede our wonderful new Waiheke Community Walk.	0	0
9:00-11:00	2323c	(2323c) The Waiheke Community Walk	Join us for this wonderful Walking Festival kick-off event, a 2km community walk at the Onetangi Sports Park. A chance to come together with family, friends and neighbours and celebrate our beautiful island and community. Be welcomed with a whakatau and pōwhiri from our Mana Whenua from Ngāti Pāoa, and discover a wonderful walking trail that all the family can enjoy. This walk is free for everyone and does not count toward your available walk spots.	0	0
5 Day Walk	2323a	(2323a) WAIHEKE WINE CENTRE Te Ara Hura 5-Day Adventure	Join fun, fit local guides for this five day, nearly 100km Te Ara Hura walking adventure. This is the 8th year of the Te Ara Hura. It's a tough 5 days - you will be walking 6 to 8 hours at a moderate pace to complete approximately 20km per day, so a very good level of walking fitness is required. Think half marathon every day, for 5 days!	9	100	$ 215

Time	Code	Title	Description	Grade	KM	Cost
Thursday, 26 October 2023
10:00 - 13:00	2326a	(2326a) Te Matuku Private Land Walk	A stunning hike through private land, beside wetlands, across coastal farmland, and down through the pristine bush. With the kind permission of, and guided by the lovely Lady Jennie Fenwick, as she opens her land and views to the Walking Festival. Close this wonderful loop walk by descending through the stunning bush of the Awaawaroa - Te Matuku Walkway. Price includes a $15 premium walk fee and GST. An optional two-way shuttle for $40 is available.	6	6	$ 17
10:00 - 14:00	2326b	(2326b) OYSTER INN Classic Coastal Walk	Back by popular demand! Join us on this stunning guided walk from Matiatia around the headlands to the north, taking in the breathtaking views of the Hauraki Gulf and neighbouring islands. Drop down into secluded bays, and climb to enjoy the gorgeous views and award-winning architecture along this coastal track. And what better way to finish this walk than a spectacular lunch at Waiheke's much-loved Oyster Inn. Enjoy a glass of bubbles and fresh oysters, followed by a delicious two-course lunch. Mid-week perfection! Lunch from 12.30pm until 2pm.	6	6	$ 102
14:00 - 16:30	2326c	(2326c) GLOWING SKY Coast to Cascades Walk	Lace up your walking shoes and enjoy the serene coastal landscape and lush bush of the spectacular Whakanewha Regional Park. This intentionally leisurely journey invites you to embrace the wonderful Nikau track and take in the delights of magical dense forest at the Cascades, at a pace everyone can enjoy.	4	5
14.00 - 16.00	2326d	(2326d) Te Reo Walk	A wonderful walk and learning opportunity Walk the talk with local Ngāti Pāoa designer, curator and environmentalist Jeanine Clarkin, as she takes you through her neighbourhood sharing kōrero about Māori language use in Aotearoa today. Learn about how Te Reo Maori is integrated into our daily language, learn some basic kupu (words), and enjoy. Nau mai haere mai.	4	4.5

Time	Code	Title	Description	Grade	KM	Cost
Friday, 27 October 2023
9:00 - 12:00	2327a	(2327a) MAKE TRACKS Breaking New Ground Walk	A Festival double whammy. A brand new walk for 2023, for those who like to explore uncharted territory! With huge thanks to Major Sponsor and founder Gary Wilton of MAKE TRACKS (also founder of the Walking Festival just BTW) and thanks to the kind permission of Man O' War Vineyards, we are excited to offer a hike across land at the far eastern end of Waiheke Island. For those who like something a bit different and a bit rugged, this is land that has never been walked over. Price includes a $15 premium walk fee and GST, there is no public transport to this walk but an optional shuttle bus can be booked for $40 return.	7	7	$ 17
09:00 - 14:00	2327b	(2327b) Big Walk Friday: Matiatia to Palm Beach	Welcome to Big Walk Fridays Strap on your hiking shoes, this walk is for the people who just love walking! We will tackle one of the best 10km sections of the 100km Te Ara Hura track. Enjoy views forever, as the track climbs the rocky headlands and descends to sandy beaches on a mix of fabulous tracks and quiet roads. Our BYO picnic break at a special private location will include treats generously offered by our lovely hosts. The walk finishes on tranquil Palm Beach.	6	12
10:00 - 13:00	2327c	(2327c) The Camino Walk	The camino can be closer than you think'. It's not Spain, but you don't have to go that far to discover the peace and mindfulness walking in nature can bring to you. Authors Guides Robin Kearns (geography professor) and Catharina van Bohemen (author of Towards Compostela) integrate walking into their contemplative practice. Join them for a gentle and silent hike through Te Atawhai Whenua (a Forest and Bird Reserve) with readings along the way. Bring along a BYO picnic to have with the group towards the end of the walk, to enjoy each other's company and share stories.	5	3
14:00 - 16:00	2327d	(2327d) The Storytelling Walk (with the Walk Waiheke App)	Join us we'll show you how to download the app, bring your own earbuds or headset, and be swept away by the stories as you walk around the historic Rangihoua area. Search for Walk Waiheke on your App Store for Apple, or Play Store for Android. Download and enjoy. Bring your own device, and earbuds or headset.	6	5

Time	Code	Title	Description	Grade	KM	Cost
Saturday, 28 October 2023
10.30 - 15.00	2328b	(2328b) A Taste of Waiheke Walk	A gentle food inspired walk taking in the Esplanade food forest, community gardens by the sea, and back for a delicious shared lunch at Waiheke's Rescue Food Kai Cafe to enjoy a locally themed lunch. Kathy Voyles has done umpteen cooking courses all over the world and believes that sharing a plate of good food can change the world, one plate at a time. The walk will feature gentle hills, but is mainly flat and fairly easy. walk is free but a koha toward the community gardens will be greatly appreciated.	3	2	KOHA
11:00 - 14:00	2328a	(2328a) Wairua Beach to Barn - Private Land Bonanza (1)	A private land stunner. Our most popular walk from 2022, Wairua (formerly known as Carey Bay) will be opened again to the Walking Festival by wonderful owner Bruce Plested, long-time supporter, friend and Patron of the Festival. Bruce will guide you as you explore this stunning piece of coastal land. BYO picnic and snacks, as there will be time in a few very special spots to take in where you are, and appreciate all around you.	7	6	$ 37
14:00 - 16:00	2328d	(2328d) PALM BEACH STORE walk with Sister Shout Choir	Get ready to be entertained as Sister Shout, Waiheke's much-loved acapella Choir, guide you on a late afternoon singalong walk. Start at the lookout above Little Palm Beach and follow along with your wonderful guides on this (mostly) downhill walk. End this fun, inspiring, musical walk enjoying the Waihekean welcome at Little Palm Beach Store	5	2
14:00 - 17:00	2328c	(2328c) POSTAGE STAMP WINES Grape to Grace Walk	This stunning walk starts along Onetangi Beach, offers a rare chance to venture up into the valley of vineyards through Obsidian Winery and private land , ending with a wonderful wine tasting experience with Charlotte Lockhart and her team at one of Waiheke's newest wine tasting experiences, Postage Stamp Wines.	6	4.5	$ 47
19.00 - 20:30	2328e	(2328e) Little Oneroa Spotlighting	Little Oneroa Spotlighting Learn about what comes alive at night in your local stream with the Mountains to Sea team and Waiheke Resources Trust. We will be leading a guided walk and spot lighting event to showcase the biodiversity of this awa. Bring: head torch or hand torch, warm clothes and rain coat, closed shoes you do not mind getting muddy! Minimum age of 8 years applies.	3	1.5

Time	Code	Title	Description	Grade	KM	Cost
Sunday, 29 October 2023
10:00 - 13:00	2329a	(2329a) GO MEDIA Hooks Bay Magic	One of our most popular walks from 2022. Hike across stunning farmlands with the kind permission of Man O' War farm, viewing land and sea from spots very few have been. Bring your togs and and snacks if you fancy a quick dip at Hooks Bay Beach. This walk starts and ends at Stony Batter, with an optional charter bus.	8	8	$ 17
10:30 - 15:00	2329b	(2329b) The HEKE Beer and Whisky Adventure Walk	Explore private land on an unformed track through stunning native remnant forest. Starting at wonderful new The HEKE, walk through stunning wetlands, lesser-known tracks of the Onetangi Sports Park and beautiful native bush of landowners Mark and Roanne Izzard, Loop back to The HEKE Kitchen and Garden Bar for beer and whisky tastings and shared grazing platters. The World Cup Rugby final is 8am ... this walk starts at 10.30am (meet time 10.15am). Price includes tastings and food (1pm - 3pm), premium walk fee of $17 and GST.	7	7	$ 72
11:00 - 14:00	2329c	(2329c) Wairua Beach to Barn - Private Land Bonanza (2)	A private coastal land stunner. Our most popular walk from 2022, Wairua will be opened again to the Walking Festival by wonderful owner Bruce Plested, long-time supporter, friend and Patron of the Festival. BYO picnic and snacks. Cost includes a premium walk fee of $15, GST and a compulsory one-way bus to Wairua.	7	6	$ 37
13:00 - 16:00	2329d	(2329d) ALLPRESS OLIVE GROVES Explore the Olive Groves Walk (1)	For lovers of olives and olive oil. One of our most popular walks with a brand new twist. Join passionate Olive Grower Anne Stanimiroff on this stunning walk from the Matiatia foreshore , along the beautiful coastal trail, and then exploring three of the Allpress working olive groves at the western end of the island. The walk will include a pruning demonstration, and planting advice and finish with an olive oil tasting.	6	4.5	$ 27
14:00 - 17:00	2329e	(2329e) FULLERS360 The Art Walk	A beautifully artful Sunday afternoon ... stunning Church Bay coastal vistas, sculpture spotting along the track of the Sculpture on the Gulf to meet international abstract painter Gabriella Lewenz and experience her beautiful handbuilt earthbrick studio gallery. Continue through this picturesque part of the island, and drop in to see respected figurative sculptor Olivier Duhamel in his working studio. End the walk at the Community Art Gallery with a free glass of wine and a sneak preview of the 2024 Sculpture on the Gulf.	6	5
19.00 - 20:30	2329f	(2329f) Sunset Creepy Crawlies Night Time Stream Explore!	Night time stream explore for Creepy Crawlies 🦋 in Te Toki Reserve. This is a family all age event (children welcome with an adult). Please bring a flashlight and wear sturdy closed in shoes you do not mind getting muddy. Explore and discover magical depths of creatures hidden during the day that come out to play during the night!	3	3.5

Time	Code	Title	Description	Grade	KM	Cost
Monday, 30 October 2023
10:00 - 12:30	2330b	(2330b) Sunshine Valley Family Walk	Join us for a magical, rustic, working farm walk over private land! Take in the tranquil surroundings of this beautiful working farm. Follow the track as it leads you up a steep hill, where your effort is well rewarded as the view expands revealing stunning vistas. Bring your gumboots or sturdy walking shoes that may get muddy! Join the family/owners afterwards for a cuppa at Sunshine Valley Garden Centre. A shuttle bus add-on is available transport is required. Cost of $40 return. Please add when you book the walk.	7	3
14:00 - 17:00	2330a	(2330a) ECOPOD Te Whau Coastal Loop Walk	Explore the stunning Te Whau coastal tracks, beaches known only to the locals, and beautiful Hitapa Bay, Okoka Bay and Kuakarau Reserve. Join this challenging walk and our friends from Ecopod for this fabulous loop walk through the lesser-known tracks in this gorgeous part of the Island. We'll look out for native birds and sealife, and might also spot the Ecopods on Vintage Lane. (Architectural and eco-friendly transportable buildings)! This is a fabulous free walk, for walkers looking for a challenge.	7	7
Tuesday, 31 October 2023
09:00 - 11:30	2331a	(2331a) SCARECROW Palm Beach to Oneroa	An absolute favourite section of the 100km Te Ara Hura. This is one for people who just love walking ... A stunning coastal trail, with views forever, as the track climbs the rocky headlands and descends to sandy beaches, a mix of fabulous tracks and quiet roads. Well behaved dogs on leads welcome.	6	6.5
13:00 - 15:00	2331b	(2331b) Neighbours Past Storytelling Walk	Neighbours Past story walk with Tanya Batt You're invited to join storyteller and local history enthusiast Tanya Batt take a walk back in time along Awaawaroa Road to share some of the early pioneering history of the Awaawaroa Valley. Walk will end at the Community Building for a cuppa. Please carpool as parking is limited.	2	3
19:00 - 20:00	2331c	(2331c) SILENT DISCO Boogie on the Beach	Join our local music & dance lover, Christa Loisel from SIC BEATS, for a sunset boogie on Palm Beach. Don a headset, dance like nobody is watching and boogie your way down the beach listening to some fabulous beats. Feel free to dress up in something sparkly and wear ya lights ... the theme is Shine Bright!	2	1	$ 15

Time	Code	Title	Description	Grade	KM	Cost
Wednesday, 1 November 2023
11.00 - 13:00	2301b	(2301b) Mindful Walk in Whakanewha	This focused walk, led by SimplyB's Wellbeing Coach Mel Burdett through the beautiful Whakanewha Regional Park, will invigorate the mind and body. Mel will guide you on a playful journey through nature toward yourself - with mindfulness and contemplation, curious discovery and some silence as you walk, pause and reflect. Bring a picnic and enjoy lunch with fellow walkers as an added option after the walk.	5	5
13:30 - 16:00	2301a	(2301a) ALLBIRDS Fabulous Northern Reserves Exploration Walk	This inspiring walk from McKenzie Reserve to Newton Reserve explores and celebrates all of the amazing regeneration and reforestation work being done by passionate conservation groups and private landowners. Join us as we take you on this journey through the diverse environments of Waiheke's northern beaches, wetlands and coastal cliffs. Meet some dedicated conservation ambassadors along the way. A complimentary, light afternoon tea will be kindly provided by Friends of the Newton Reserve.	6	7
17:00 - 19:00	2301c	(2301c) Peter Rees Seascapes Photography Walk	Let brilliant landscape photographer Peter Rees guide you through beautiful Whakanewha Park sharing tips and ideas to further develop your photographic skills. For moderately experienced amateur photographers.	2	2

Time	Code	Title	Description	Grade	KM	Cost
Thursday, 2 November 2023
10:00 - 14:30	2302b	(2302b) Connells Bay Sculpture Park and the Gin Distillery Experience	A unique Festival experience, especially for those who don't live on Waiheke and can't access these special places at other times! Be guided around the fabulous Connells Bay Sculpture Park by curators John and Jo Gow, then wander just over 1km up the road to Waiheke's stunning destination, the Waiheke Distilling Co, for a generous gin and tonic and shared platter while enjoying their fabulous gulf views and hospitality. Price includes the gin bar experience, return charter bus from Matiatia, premium walk fee of $15 and GST. John and Jo are kindly offering the sculpture park tour at no charge for visitors to our island.	6	3	$ 97
10:00 - 16:00	2302a	(2302a) Onetangi Progressive Lunch Walk	The Progressive Lunch is back! Foodies! Look no further than our Onetangi progressive long lunch, taking in rolling vineyards over private land, this walk is a real feast for the senses. But it's not just the scenery that's impressive - walkers will also have the chance to sample some of the best local produce along the way, from fresh bread to artisan wine. So if you're a foodie with a love for nature, our progressive long lunch is sure to be right up your street. Join us for a walk along gorgeous Onetangi Beach, and climb up for beautiful sea vistas and a meander through the picturesque Onetangi valley. Stop at 3 iconic and renowned wineries and restaurants - a sumptuous starter at Casita Miro, melt in your mouth main course at Te Motu, and a delicious dessert at Charlie Farley's at the beach. Bon appetit! Price includes all meals, an alcoholic beverage or soft drink at each venue, $15 premium walk fee and GST.	7	7	$ 131
3 days	2302e	(2302e) 3 Day 2 Night Walk and Accommodation Package	Just arrive and let us organise a wonderful 3 days of walking for you. Join a group of 12 fellow walkers, staying at the lovely and relaxed Kiwi House in Oneroa. Enjoy walks with your group, some curated just for you, or join specially selected Festival walks, for three fun-filled, active days on gorgeous Waiheke Island.	6	28

Time	Code	Title	Description	Grade	KM	Cost
11.00 - 13.00	2302c	(2302c) Time Trek: Exploring Rocky Bay's Past	This immersive history walk offers a wonderful opportunity to listen to knowledgeable long-term locals happy to share their insights and stories. Be welcomed by Dave Malan, a local with a deep-rooted commitment to the area. Embark on a captivating journey, meeting five other locals along this walk, through established bush trails, beautiful vistas, eclectic Rocky Bay backyards and nature. This memorable journey finishes at the iconic Omiha Memorial Hall, a cherished community hub. An old-school cash-only system, buying a cuppa, sandwich and cake ($5) helps support the ongoing preservation efforts and contributes directly to the local community.	6	4
13:00 - 16:00	2302d	(2302d) ALLPRESS OLIVE GROVES Explore the Olive Groves Walk (2)	For lovers of olives and olive oil. One of our most popular walks with a brand new twist. This year Allpress Olive Groves will host you at their new tasting room at the end of the walk. Join passionate Olive Grower Anne Stanimiroff on this stunning walk from the Matiatia foreshore , along the beautiful coastal trail, and then exploring three of the Allpress working olive groves at the west end of the island. The walk traverses the Forest and Bird Reserve Atawhai Whenua, and will include a pruning demonstration, and planting advice and finish with an olive oil tasting. Cost includes walk, olive oil tasting and tour, $15 premium walk fee and GST.	6	4.5	$ 27
19:00 - 20:00	2302f	(2302f) SILENT DISCO Boogie on the Beach	Join our local music & dance lover, Christa Loisel from SIC BEATS, for a sunset boogie on Palm Beach. Don a headset, dance like nobody is watching and boogie your way down the beach listening to some fabulous beats. Feel free to dress up in something sparkly and wear ya lights ... the theme is Shine Bright!	2	1	$ 15

Time	Code	Title	Description	Grade	KM	Cost
Friday, 3 November 2023
09:00 - 15:00	2303a	(2303a) Big Walk Friday: Trig Hill to Te Matuku	This walk is for the people who just love walking and love a challenge! We will tackle one of the best and the trickiest 12km sections of the 100km Te Ara Hura track. Starting at Trig Hill, to finally winding down through the fabulous Awaawaroa-Te Matuku Walkway. Finally we'll meet the Orapiu road and as a wonderful Festival treat, head down a private drive to meet some locals. There's an optional little extra walk down to the Te Matuku Marine Reserve, and/or you might get a cuppa and a scone :)	9	12	$ 42
14:00 - 17:00	2303c	(2303c) My Grandfather's backyard	A brand new Walking Festival history walk. "One hundred years ago, my grandparents, Estelle and Bert Le Roy came to Onetangi with their three young children for a holiday. They stayed for 60 years". Join wonderful local Margaret Peacock as we walk Onetangi, up hills and down, and she creates a picture of what Onetangi was like at that time and how a sense of community developed. There will be much talking with the walking and stories shared about Onetangi from the 1920s – 1980s.	5	6.2
14:00 - 17:00	2303b	(2303b) POSTAGE STAMP WINES Grape to Grace Walk (2)	This stunning walk through private land ends with a wonderful wine tasting experience. Join this wonderful walk which starts along Onetangi Beach, and ventures up into the valley of vineyards. This is a rare chance to cross the valley, through Obsidian Winery and the heart of Waiheke grape growing heaven, and with a bit of fence jumping, explore the land around the Chapel, then make our way down to join Charlotte Lockhart and her team at one of Waiheke's newest wine tasting experiences, Postage Stamp Wines.	6	4.5	$ 47
20:00 - 21:30	2303d	(2303d) ASTRONZ Night Sky Walk	Join Astronz and Dark Sky Waiheke Island for an astronomical night time adventure from the Marae, along the Blackpool Esplanade to Surfdale and back where you will take a journey through time and space looking at your local night sky. Finish the walk with our wonderful experts and their fabulous telescopic equipment.	3	2
20:00 - 22:00	2303e	(2303e) ASTRONZ Night Sky Viewing	View our fantastic night sky through telescopic equipment and hear fascinating information about what twinkles above from the experts at Astronz and Dark Sky Waiheke Island. Night sky viewing is a peep into history because it is the same night sky that our ancestors saw and light takes time to travel to us so we are always looking back in time. This is a fantastic non-walking opportunity for an evening of astronomical adventure for all ages, guided by experts at Astronz and Dark Sky Waiheke Island.	0	0

Time	Code	Title	Description	Grade	KM	Cost
Saturday, 4 November 2023
09:00 - 12:00	2304b	(2304b) WAIHEKE WORKOUT Coast to Coast Walk	A fabulous walk from coast to coast, showcasing the beauty of Waiheke, led by our fabulous local gym instructor, Nydia Bean. This is a fabulous classic Waiheke walk, one of the originals, which now showcases some of the 100km Te Ara Hura track.	6	8.5
9:00 - 12:00	2304a	(2304a) MAKE TRACKS Breaking New Ground Walk (2)	A Festival double whammy. A brand new walk for 2023, for those who like to explore uncharted territory! We are excited to offer a hike across land at the far eastern end of Waiheke Island. For those who like something a bit different and a bit rugged, this is land that has never been walked over. Price includes $15 premium walk fee plus GST.	7	7	$ 17
10:30 - 14:30	2304c	(2304c) A Walk on the Woodside	A private land stunner, and Festival favourite from 2022. Begin at Rocky Bay and follow through the gorgeous Whakanewha Regional Park, followed by the opportunity to walk private tracks available only for this Festival, through the kindness of 2 property owners at Woodside Bay. Bring your own picnic and finish with a rest and lunch at Heriot Grove. This is a faster-paced walk so a good level of fitness is required. A charter bus is included in the price.	6	9	$ 42
11:00 - 14:00	2304d	(2304d) Wairua Beach to Barn - Private Land Bonanza (3)	A private land stunner. Wow, come join us on this very special walk... Our most popular walk from 2022, Wairua (formerly known as Carey Bay) will be opened again to the Walking Festival by wonderful owner Bruce Plested, long-time supporter, friend and Patron of the Festival. Bruce will guide you as you explore this stunning piece of coastal land. BYO picnic and snacks, as there will be time in a few very special spots to take in where you are, and appreciate all around you.	7	6	$ 37
15:00 - 17:30	2304e	(2304e) Walking into Connection	Want to deepen your attunement with nature and your natural way of being? Join wonderful locals Louise Marra and Rosie Walford for this special walk. This walk is not about covering ground at speed; instead it focuses on experiencing vivid connection with the land and bush of Onetangi - a communing process for those who want to relate more sensitively with the life around them on any walk they do.	5	4.5

Time	Code	Title	Description	Grade	KM	Cost
Sunday, 5 November 2023
09:00 - 11:00	2305a	(2305a) Waiheke Community Pest Control Family Walk	This walk is led by Sally Horwood with contributions from Forest & Bird, Ratbusters, Wildlife at Waiheke, Waiheke Dotterel and Shorebird Protection Group 'Dotties' and Kiwi Conservation Club. Bring the kids and dog, there will be opportunities to look at the many pest control devices along this stunning and lesser-known Musson's Track walkway, such as stoat traps, rat bait stations and monitor tunnels. You'll help collect the ink cards with critter footprints and ask all sorts of questions and look out for wildlife along the way.	5	1
9.30 - 12:30	2305b	(2305b) Bring Back the Birdsong Walk	A unique opportunity to go for a stunning hike and learn tonnes about our native birds and wildlife. Walk with the amazing team from Te Korowai o Waiheke as they tell us about their work to get Waiheke predator free. You'll learn how to do the 5-minute bird count, learn the bird calls, and what to look out for as we venture through our wonderful bush and beautiful coastal tracks of Te Whau peninsula and Kuakarau Reserve.	7	5
10.00 - 12.00	2305c	(2305c) The 'Walk and Yoga' Walk	A new walk for 2023, with a lovely local. Join Patience Scarles & the Yoga Hike Club for a 40 minute guided walk through native bush, including mindfulness at a beautiful location and community connection, followed by a 40 minute gentle yoga practice at Little Oneroa (suitable for first-timers and experienced yogis alike). Tea and treats provided. This walk is graded 4 out of 10, which means it is mostly on very well formed track, though may have some narrow or muddy stretches, and quite a few steps.	4	4
11:00 - 14:00	2305d	(2305d) Wairua Beach to Barn - Patrons and Friends only walk (4)	A chance to celebrate our Patrons and Friends, without their financial support our Festival couldn't happen. Be guided by long-time supporter, friend and Patron of the Festival Bruce Plested as you explore this stunning piece of coastal land. This walk will finish in time for you to join the Festival Finale on the beach at Rarowhara, and includes a couple of drink tokens and light snacks!	7	6	$ 67
14:00 - 17:00	2305e	(2305e) WAIHEKE WINE CENTRE Festival Finale	Join us to celebrate the 13th annual Waiheke Walking Festival at Rarowhara, to celebrate the end of eleven magical days of walking and fun. Join fellow Festival goers, volunteers, guides, landowners, Sponsors, Patrons, Festival Friends and other supporters as we celebrate another successful Waiheke Walking Festival. This is an event and does not count toward you booking spots. Price includes entry, light snacks and 2 drinks (wines, beer or soft drinks) - wines by Postage Stamp Wines.	0	0	$ 30